Obsidian Markdown Formatting Guide

Basic text

This is a block of basic text. There is no specific formatting that is necessary for each block of text.

Use the return key to create another block of text.

Use the tab key to indent and next a block of text or a list.

Bullet List:
- Bullet point 1
- Bullet point 2
- Bullet point 3

Numbered List:
1. Number point 1
2. Number point 2
3. Number point 3

To Do List:
- [ ] Item 1
- [ ] Item 2
- [x] Completed Item

Tags: #tag
Horizontal Line: ---

Text Formatting
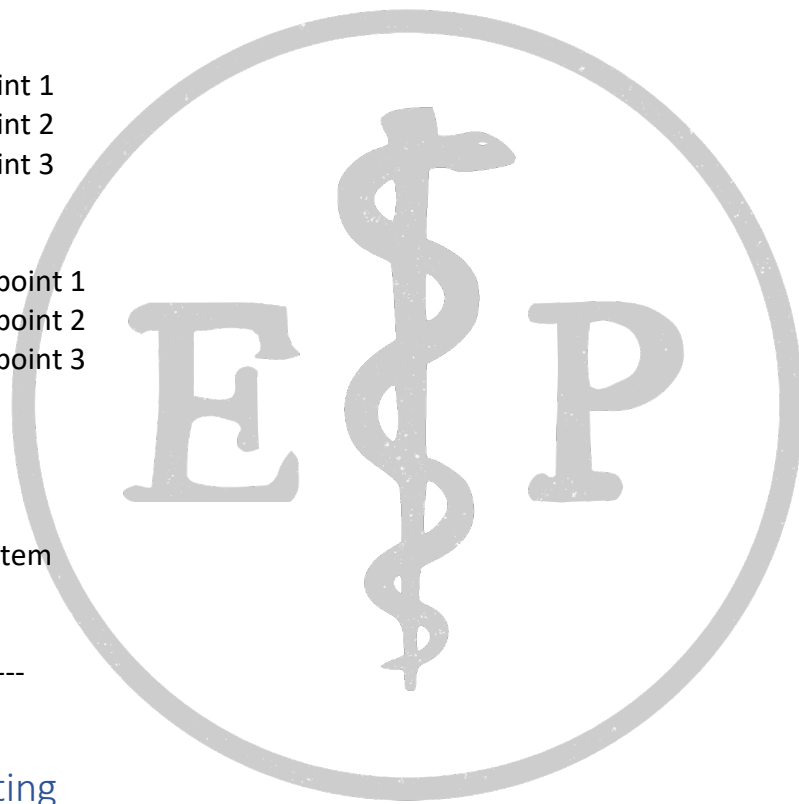

Bold
Italic
Bold Italic
==Highlight==
~~Strikethrough~~
%%comments%%

>[!info] Callout Title
>
>Callout text

Links

Basic Link:	[[File Name]]	Creates a link to the note named "File Name"
Basic link with alternate name	[[File Name | Alternate Name]]	Creates a link to the note named "File Name" but displays the "Alternate Name"
Embedded Link:	![[File Name]]	Links to the note named "File Name" and shows the content of the note in reading mode
Header Link:	[[File Name#HeaderName]]	Links to the specific header "HeaderName" inside the note named "File Name"
Block Link:	[[File Name#^ ed7e4b]]	Links to a particular text block in the note named "File Name" that is designated by the notation "^ed7e4b"

Headings

Heading 1
Heading 2
Heading 3
Heading 4
Heading 5

Obsidian Hotkeys

1. cmd+click: follows link
2. cmd+e: toggle between preview and markup
3. cmd+o: opens quick switcher
4. cmd+shift+f: search
5. cmd+opt+left arrow: Back
6. cmd+opt+right arrow: Forward
7. cmd+n: new note
8. cmd+click on note: open note in new window
9. cmd+p: opens command palate
10. cmd+f: search within a note
11. cmd+shift+f: search within the vault